#1 HOT 100

SOMETHING JUST LIKE THIS

The Chainsmokers & Coldplay | SME

It's a largely uneventful week at the top end of the Hot 100, but there's plenty of minor reshuffling taking place, including The Chainsmokers & Coldplay's move back to #1 with Something Just Like This. The next significant bump doesn't take place until #16, where Lady Gaga's The Cure has landed; cracking the Top 20 from #55 makes her the second biggest mover this week. The last time she was in the 20 was with Perfect Illusion in September of 2016 which peaked at #12.

The first and only debut in the Top 50 is from Shawn Mendes' There's Nothing Holdin' Me Back at #29. With plenty of support behind the track after just one week of radio service, it ought to put up quite a fight once it hits the Top 10 – but it still has plenty of legwork to do if it hopes to match Mendes' career peak of #1 with Treat You Better.

#1 MOST ADDED TO RADIO

THERE'S NOTHING HOLDIN' ME BACK

Shawn Mendes | UMA

On top of his debut, and as predicted last week by TMN, Shawn Mendes absolutely tore it up at radio this week, followed by a similarly successful return from Charlie Puth. There's Nothing Holdin' Me Back, serviced alongside the deluxe version of Mendes' Illuminate album. Added across the board to commercial and regional Hit stations, both KIIS stations, Ash London Live (who added it late last week) and the Nova Network, which returned to additions following a week off the prior week.

Puth cleans up too, also seeing love from KIIS and a host of other commercial stations including the ACE Radio Network.

#1 NEW SINGLE RELEASE

FIRST TIME

Kygo ft. Ellie Goulding | SME

Leading the charge to radio – as he always does – is Kygo. His new treat First Time features vocal powerhouse Ellie Goulding and is a straight-up house hit waiting to happen. It's a worthy follow-up to 5x Platinum predecessor It Ain't Me ft. Selena Gomez, which is still doing the rounds on charts today.

Imagine Dragons make a brazen move into a new musical direction with new single Thunder. What is likely their most electronic sounding track to date, it ought to go down a treat with commercial and convert a new legion of fans.

On the topic of direction changes, new Fall Out Boy ought to turn quite a few heads, to say the least. Nat Conway also drops the follow-up to her debut single and Hailee Steinfeld returns to the fold for 2017.

RADIO WRAP

Re-entering at #1 on the Breaker chart is Confidence Man's undeniable banger Bubblegum. Demonstrably their most successful track yet, it's currently at #7 on the Hot 100 Alternative chart and #25 on the Hot 100 Australian chart on top of being the #1 Breaker. It's their first single to make a dent in the airplay charts.

This week's #1 Heatseeker is G-Eazy & Kehlani's Good Life, which moved to #50 from #92. Taken from the soundtrack to the Fate Of The Furious, it's Kehlani's first foray into the Hot 100, and the most successful track from the blockbuster's companion compilation thus far. It's actually the only track to see airplay, with other tracks seeing success only on the digital charts.

BACK TO THE RHYTHM

Luke Million ft. Sam Sparro | ETC

Adelaide producer Luke Million had a massive 2016, touring throughout Australia, the US and Canada, picking up radio play in the US, and topping it off with the international success of his take on the Stranger Things theme which has had over 4 million views on Facebook and got added across the board on triple j. Now Luke has teamed up with fellow Aussie Sam Sparro for Back To The Rhythm.

Having just wrapped a massive 18-date Australian tour with Client Liaison, Luke will soon be packing his arsenal of synths and keyboards to perform at Splendour In The Grass with some very special surprise guests.

“ ONES TO WATCH

The Trending and Predictive charts are a mixed bag this week. The enigmatic group Ghost Nation currently top Australia's Spotify Viral chart, as well as many other countries', with Turn Off The Lights. This domination denies local buzz act Ruby Fields the top spot with her breakthrough hit I Want.

Kendrick Lamar's HUMBLE. still has two weeks before its ineligible for the Shazam Future Hits chart and will likely make the most of that, as shown by this week's #1. It's Lady Gaga that dominates the Shazam Movers chart, however, with The Cure still riding the hype and success it's had these past two weeks.

It's been a very lucrative year for MoneyBagg Yo. The Memphis rapper first popped up on the Trendsetters Chart last fall after Yo Gotti signed him to his CMG label and rose to #1 after the Valentine's Day release of his Heartless mixtape. Now, he has a song that has appeared on the Pandora Top Spins chart with Doin 2 Much, and is seeing close to 30,000 artist station adds every week on Pandora. Judging by his social channels, he appears to have another project on the way, too, so expect him to blow up at any moment.

NEW SINGLE SPOTLIGHT

MOST GIRLS

Hailee Steinfeld | UMA

Most Girls was produced by OneRepublic's Ryan Tedder and is Hailee's second single off the back of her EP Haiz. The highly anticipated release follows a series of features with Machine Gun Kelly, Kato and Sigala and Digital Farm Animal.

Currently filming for Pitch Perfect 3, Hailee recently starred in the James L. Brooks-produced The Edge of Seventeen. Directed by Kelly Fremon-Craig and also starring Woody Harrelson and Kyra Sedgwick, the film has earned unanimous critical acclaim.

Upon the release of her previous single, Starving, Hailee performed the track on Late Night with Seth Meyers, The TODAY Show in the US and a televised New Years performance in Hollywood.

NEW SINGLE SPOTLIGHT

RAINBOW CITY

Cloud Control | MUSHROOM

Sydney's indie psych-pop maestros Cloud Control announce the release of new single Rainbow City and two special shows in June to help launch it. Having well and truly found their balance as a trio since the departure of founding member and bass player Jeremy Kelshaw in 2013, Alister Wright and Heidi and Ulrich Lenfer return with an ebullient, driving lead single.

"It's a song about losing things," says Alister of the song. "I think everyone knows what it feels like when you lose something. We jammed it on the south coast and it came together up here in Sydney with our dear friend MT."

Rainbow City's immediate appeal is undeniably tied to the Cloud Control we know and love, the track brims with confidence and exhibits the freedom and strength found in the band's new collaborative equilibrium.

OVERVIEW

Kasabian have pulled ahead in the realm of alternative radio with recent Australian favourite You're In Love With A Psycho. At #1 from #5 following weeks of support from triple j and Triple M, both of which have the track at #3 on their respective Spins Charts, it's the third Kasabian single to top the chart. The first two were Fire and Eez-Eh. The track also sits in the Top 5 of the TMN Contemporary Rock chart.

Vallis Alps have cracked a new career best, with East now at #2. Taken from their stellar new Fable EP, the track surpasses previous hits Fading (also from Fable) and Young, both of which peaked at #3.

Billie Eilish's Bellyache and Kim Churchill's Breakneck Speed are both making some waves as well.

PLGRMS

Sony Music Australia

After two years of streaming and triple j Unearthed success with tunes Fools and Their Gold, Pieces and Gemini, Sydney based duo PLGRMS bring us their newest offering in the form of sync-ready gem Dream You Up – the first single to be released since signing with Sony Music Entertainment Australia in late 2016. Combining hypnotic percussive moments with moments of pretty piano detailing and warm vocal harmonies, Dream You Up takes PLGRMS to another level as artists and hints at what is yet to come. Lyrically the song is driven and passionate, with themes around yearning, searching, and finally finding what the heart desires. Great for a campaign with a focus on mystique, desire or gritty determination.

Allan Gray - The Letter

Ogilvy & Mather Cape Town (Creative Agency)

Dustin O'Halloran Music/Campell Conelly Australia (Publisher)

Investment services company Allan Gray has extended its Australian campaign for the stunningly filmed piece 'The Letter'. Set to the tender piano accompaniment of Dustin O'Halloran's An Ending, A Beginning, The Letter tells the moving story of a man reunited with his love after the fall of the Berlin Wall, giving life to the company's investment philosophy of how commitment and patience bear reward over time. The spot was directed by Gold Lion winning Kim Geldenhuys with Jan Velicky as the director of photography, and was filmed over four days in Riga, Latvia, where every attention to detail was taken to ensure the authenticity of the scene, including creating a replica of the part of the wall and recruiting an all-German cast. The Music Sales Australia team worked closely with the South African producer on the spot, which airs on TV and online locally and in South Africa.

MAKE A HUNDRED

My Baby

IND

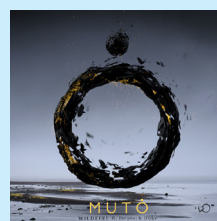

My Baby is a Dutch-New Zealand trio based in Amsterdam, comprising of vocalist Cato van Dijck, drummer Joost van Dyck and New Zealand guitarist Daniel Johnston.

Make A Hundred is the centerpiece track from the band's third album, PREHISTORIC RHYTHM, infused with blues, soul and funk influences. Van Dijck is reminiscent of Janis Joplin as she belts out impassioned notes over twangy guitar riffs and danceable drumbeats: "My baby, trying to make a hundred / Cuz 99½ won't do". Her lyrics are unequivocal - we're staying focused and "keeping it 100", as the street slang goes. The song's raw spirit is perfect for high-octane visuals that demand an energetic yet earthy, primal soundtrack that doesn't indulge in electronic trickery. Van Dijck says, "We want to take the audience on a shamanically inspired musical trip."

Although not as psychedelic as their other works, the trippy '70s vibe of Make A Hundred is palpable - a Woodstock aesthetic for the 21st century. After winning the Edison Pop Award (the so-called Dutch Grammy) for Best Alternative Album in 2016 and headlining a transcontinental tour of the UK, Europe, New Zealand and South Africa, My Baby is definitely a band to watch out for.
